INFORMATION & CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

1. A maximum of 50 entries will be accepted for the Annual NSW Masters, Webb Bros Working Dog Auction.
2. An entry fee of $30.00 per dog/starter must accompany each entry form.
3. The organizing committee reserves the right to ballot out dogs in order to obtain the desired quality, number and variety of ages. Entry forms have a section to indicate your order of preference for balloting.
4. All dogs presented for auction must have no known or suspected health problems.
5. Any dog that the vendor suspects or knows may display aggressive behavior towards humans & other dogs must not be entered.
6. Entries received on or before 16th October, will incur a 6% commission on the sale price.
7. Entries received after 16th October will incur a 10% commission on the sale price and will be the first dogs balloted out if the maximum number has been reached.
8. Super Jackpot Incentives
All dogs sold at the 2009 Webb Bros Working Dog Auction, are eligible for $400 Super Jackpot Incentive, at the 2010 4th Annual NSW Masters Working Dog Trials, for the highest scoring dog in any section maiden, novice and open, excluding finals.
Plus
All dogs sold at the 2009 Webb Bros Working Dog Auction, are eligible for $100 added bonus incentive, at the 2010 4th Annual NSW Masters Working Dog Trials, for the highest scoring dog in any finals.
9. Webb Bros Property & Livestock guarantees that vendors will receive payment of the auction price, less commission payable, within 21 days of the auction.
10. Vendors are invited to demonstrate their dogs from 2.30pm on auction day. The organizers will supply a fenced area.
11. Any Vendor who allows their dogs to work in a manner that the committee decides may lead to cattle being mistreated or injured will be asked to cease their demonstration immediately.
12. All dogs demonstrated must be put up for auction. No dog is to be traded prior to auction. Only dogs entered for auction are to be sold on the day.
13. Any vendor wishing to place reserves on their dogs must do so at the office no later than 2.00pm on the day of the auction. Dogs with no reserve will be sold to the highest bidder.

14. The auctioneers will hold any dog "passed in" at auction, for 30 minutes after the auction, so negotiations can continue between vendor and under bidders in the presence of a steward. No dog is to be sold for less than the reserve price.
15. Normal auctioning terms and conditions apply and will be displayed on the day.
16. Vendors will be responsible for the restraint, control and well being of their dogs throughout the day
17. Bitches on heat are not permitted at Gloucester Showground on the day.
18. No pups under 16 weeks of age are to be entered or sold.
19. Vendors may substitute a dog for one already entered providing it meets with the approval of the auction coordinator and is done so at least 10 days prior to the auction.
20. The Auctioneer decision will be final.
21. Webb Bros Property & Livestock requests that all vendors be at Gloucester Showground and register at the office no later than 3.00pm on the auction day.
22. Webb Bros Property & Livestock reserves the right to allocate the order of demonstrations. Vendors must demonstrate their dogs at the allocated time. Demonstrations are conducted between 2.30pm and 5.15pm, vendors failing to demonstrate their dogs during the allocated time will forfeit the opportunity to do so.
23. All vendors must submit a current vaccination certificate for each dog entered. Pups over 3 months, a minimum of distemper/hepatitis/parvo. The dog must have been vaccinated in the last 12 months, but not less than 2 weeks prior to auction. This should be done whilst registering at the office on auction day prior to 2.00pm. If your dog remains unsold, you may collect your certificate from the office following the auction.
24. Any registered buyer wishing to charge purchase/purchases to their Stock Agents account must provide a letter of introduction from the Manager of their local branch on Auction Day. There is no rebate available from this sale.
25. Vendors must complete a Working Capability Form for each dog entered. This form will be attached to the buyers invoice.

Full catering available at the venue throughout the day from the Gloucester Lions club.
A presale catalogue will be posted to entrants two weeks prior to the auction.
